CALABASAS TENNIS & SWIM CENTER

MAY 15, 2016

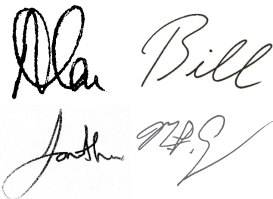

Letter From Committee Chairs

In 2014, we set out in search of a new beneficiary for the WME Tennis Classic, and we quickly found inspiration right in our own backyard. We were inspired by two parents, Jo Ann and Jeff, who survived unimaginable heartache when they lost their child Pablo to pediatric cancer at the age of six. They carried on with a message of hope by starting The Pablove Foundation, which served up the perfect match for our 2015 event to raise money for their mission to fight childhood cancer with love.

And what a tremendous success our 2015 Tennis Classic achieved! With 70 players and more than $60,000 raised, we're proud to keep the tournament's tradition alive while starting this new chapter with Pablove at the Calabasas Tennis & Swim Center. To those who participated and donated – thank you! You're part of the Pablove family that helped the Foundation reach remarkable milestones: $1.15 million awarded in pediatric cancer research grants, and nearly 1,000 children learning the art of photography through Pablove's curriculum-based education program, Pablove Shutterbugs.

We are thrilled to invite you to join us for the 2nd Annual Pablove Tennis Classic presented by WME set for Sunday, May 15, 2016 and returning to the Calabasas Tennis & Swim Center. We will have divisions for all levels of experience, so grab your racquets, bring your doubles partner, and help us to continue fighting childhood cancer with (pab)love. We look forward to seeing you there!

Warmest regards,

Alan Melina, Bill Vuylsteke,
Jonathan McHugh, Marc Geiger,

Co-Chairs

About The Pablove Foundation

Helping kids with cancer live
a love-filled life today and a cancer-free life tomorrow

The mission of The Pablove Foundation is to:

INVEST in under-funded, cutting-edge pediatric cancer research

INSPIRE cancer families through education

IMPROVE the lives of children living with cancer through the arts

Our Founders

Jo Ann Thrailkill
Co-Founder and
President/CEO

Jo Ann is Pablo's Mommy, and the co-founder of The Pablove Foundation. For the 15 years prior to Pablove's inception, she was an Executive Producer in the music video and television commercial industry, guiding a roster of directors through hundreds of jobs with bands, record labels, and ad agencies. She produced many award-winning music videos, including the Grammy award-winning 'Learn To Fly' by Foo Fighters. Jo Ann grew up in the heart of New Orleans and attended Louisiana State University.

Jeff Castelaz
Co-Founder and
Chairman of the Board

Jeff is Pablo's Papa, and the co-founder of The Pablove Foundation. Jeff is formerly President of Warner Music Group's Elektra Records, a label founded in 1950 that has been home to The Doors, Metallica, The Cure, and hundreds of other acts. Elektra is currently home to a dozen artists, including Fitz and the Tantrums and Ed Sheeran. Through his company Cast Management - founded in 1990 - Jeff manages Dropkick Murphys and record producers Tony Hoffer and Justin Meldal-Johnsen. He is from Milwaukee and attended Milwaukee Trade and Technical High School and Marquette University.

Calabasas Tennis & Swim Center

Built in 1969 as a private club, the Tennis and Swim Center was purchased in 1994 by the City of Calabasas. Nestled by the Calabasas Lake, the grounds are surrounded by beautiful oaks over a century old. The Center has been referred to as the "crown jewel" of the city for the many programs and amenities it offers to the community.
